Prepared by the Federal Research Division of

PREFACE

This monthly survey compiles articles on sub-Saharan Africa which appear in Pravda. It has been prepared since April 1980. Pravda is the official newspaper of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Items published are presumably authoritative. Articles dealing with Soviet political, military, or economic interests in Africa are entirely translated or extensively excerpted or summarized. News accounts which heavily rely on news services of other countries are simply noted. All entries have been arranged chronologically under general African or country headings. FBIS translations are summarized or annotated for reader reference; duplication is avoided.

Summary of Commentary In Pravda on Sub-Saharan Africa (U)
22 October - 21 November 1983)

Africa General

Congratulatory Messages

(Summary) Letters of congratulations on the 66th anniversary of the Russian revolution came from Ethiopia, Congo, Benin, Tanzania, Senegal, Mali, Guinea, Angola, Sao Tome, Principe, and Mozambique. (7 Nov 83, pp. 6 and 7; 8 Nov 83, p. 5; 9 Nov 83, p. 4; 11 Nov 83, p. 4).

Southern Africa

US Seeks to "Sabotage" Namibia Solution

(Summary) The discussion of the problem of Namibia in the UN Security Council brings to mind that UN Resolution 435, which envisages the withdrawal of South African occupation forces from the country and the holding of democratic elections there under international control, serves as the basis for a solution to the problem. South Africa, however, is stubbornly unwilling to release its hold of the mineral-rich territory. It hopes to implement its version for a settlement of the Namibian problem by debarring the South West Africa People's Organization (SWAPO), which has been recognized as the sole legitimate representative of the Namibian people, from participation in a settlement of the problem. The racists want to hand over power to their puppets and thereby to keep intact military and economic positions in Namibia. For this purpose they are knocking together a puppet government from among the so-called "internal parties." South Africa is stalling for time to prevent the United Nations organization from playing an active role in the search for a peaceful solution to the Namibian question.

This tendency, this commentary points out, has become particularly noticeable after the UN Security Council has given UN Secretary General Javier Perez de Cuellar the mandate to hold consultations with all the sides concerned. The US idea to make a withdrawal of South African troops from Namibia dependent on a withdrawal of the Cuban contingent from Angola, turned out to be of real help to Pretoria. The government of Angola and other frontline states have firmly rejected the obviously unacceptable idea of "linkage." The idea has also been condemned by the UN Secretary General in a special report made after his recent tour of southern Africa. However, the regime of apartheid stubbornly insists on its absurd demand. It is being actively supported by the United States which is heading the Western "contact group" which acts in the role of a go-between at the talks. Washington has declared the "Cuban factor" to be the main obstacle to the decolonization of Namibia. Thus, the United States has actually joined in the sabotage of the world community's efforts aimed at settling the problem of Namibia. (23 Oct 83, p. 5, and summarized by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report, #210, 28 Oct 83, p. J1)

Frontline States' Meeting

(Excerpt) A meeting of the leaders of the frontline states took place in Lusaka, Zambia. The presidents of Angola, Zambia, Mozambique, Tanzania, Zimbabwean Prime Minister Mugabe, Botswana's Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the leaders of the ANC and SWAPO discussed the Namibian problem and the tense situation in southern Africa which are the result of South Africa's policies. The meeting demonstrated once more the determination of these countries to stand up against imperialist forces which are attempting to shackle these young states into bonds of neocolonialism. (21 Nov 83, p. 5)

In addition to Moscow, the delegation visited the Estonian SSR, where it was received at the Estonian Communist Party Central Committee and visited a number of industrial and agricultural enterprises. The delegation members stressed the special importance of the CPSU's experience in the leadership of Soviet society's economic and social development for the peoples of liberated states which have chosen a Socialist orientation, and they highly appraised the peace-loving foreign policy of the CPSU and the Soviet State. MPLA Secretary Praises USSR

(Text) The Great October Revolution inspired nations struggling against imperialism, colonialism, and racism. Thus this holiday is not only that of the Soviet people, but of all of progressive mankind, said Secretary of the MPLA-Workers' Party Central Committee on Ideological Questions, Information and Propaganda, R. di Almeida. Speaking in Luanda during a trade meeting, Almeida emphasized that the Soviet Union has shown and continues to show tremendous support for nations struggling for independence. (6 Nov 83, p. 4)

Soviet Union Day Celebrated

(Excerpt) Soviet Union Day is being held in Angola. A theoretical conference on the theme of "The Worldwide Significance of the Great October" took place in the central party school named for A. Neto. In Luanda, Soviet films were shown for a week in the theaters, and an exhibition of Soviet agricultural equipment is being held. (9 Nov 83, p. 5)

MPLA Steps Up Efforts to Protect Itself

(Excerpt) On a typical day in Angola, young people stand in groups in the recruiting stations. They are the new recruits. Many of them were still working the day before, but today they are consumed with one thought--the motherland is in danger! This year, the South African command, in cooperation with the Pentagon, has changed the nature of military actions with the goal of strangling Angola. Where previously South African troops were striking in the southern provinces--Cunene and Cuando-Cubango, now they are also expanding operations in central and eastern regions of the country.

An increase in production has been planned by the MPLA-Workers' Party to strengthen the home front and to increase the fighting ability of FAPLA. Also, much has been focused on the agricultural sector. Angolan industry is developing. At the beginning of next year, in the suburbs of Luanda, a new textile complex, "Techstang-II," will be constructed. (11 Nov 83, p. 5)

CPSU, Supreme Soviet Greet Angola Leader

(Excerpt) On the occasion of your national holiday, the eighth anniversary of the proclamation of independence of the People's Republic of Angola, the CPSU Central Committee and Supreme Soviet Presidium send you, the MPLA-Workers' Party Central Committee, the Permanent Commission of the People's Assembly, the Government of the People's Republic of Angola, and all the friendly Angolan people cordial congratulations and best wishes. During the years of independence, the Angolan people, under the leadership of their revolutionary vanguard, the MPLA-Workers' Party, have achieved considerable successes in carrying out socioeconomic transformations and building a people's democratic state. The Angolan people have to build the new life in complex conditions. The aggressive circles of imperialist states, primarily the United States, supported by the racist regime of the Republic of South Africa and internal counter-revolution, are trying to force Angola to abandon its chosen path of development and to foist on it the former colonial order. (11 Nov 83, p. 1, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report, #221, 15 Nov 83, p. J1)

Soviet Meeting On Angolan Holiday

(Excerpt) On 10 November, a gathering of representatives of the Soviet public took place in Moscow, dedicated to the Angolan national holiday, the anniversary of its independence. Speakers emphasized that the Soviet people sympathize with the Angolan people who, under the leadership of the MPLA-Workers' Party, have striven to construct a new society. Attending the meeting was Angolan Ambassador to the Soviet Union J. S. Augusto. (11 Nov 83, p. 5)

Newspaper Condemns US Invasion of Grenada

(Excerpt) The MPLA-Workers' Party and all the Angolan people resolutely condemned American imperialist aggression against Grenada, says the Jornal di Angola. The true goal of Washington in Central America and the countries of the Caribbean basin is to stifle the national liberation movement. We, the Angolans, are well acquainted with the crimes of international imperialism. (13 Nov 83, p. 5)

New Holiday Created

(Excerpt) From 7 to 13 November, the Days of Angolan Culture, a new national holiday, will be held in the country and will adopt the slogan, "November, which is always with us." V. Cabral conveyed a personal message to Comrade Yu. V. Andropov from Joao Bernardo Vieira, general secretary of the PAIGC and Chairman of the Council of the Revolution of the Republic of Guinea Bissau. The delegation provided information relating to the PAIGC's activity aimed at implementing progressive transformations, ensuring the country's economic autonomy, and improving the working people's standard of living. It expressed sincere thanks to the CPSU and the Soviet people for their aid and support to the people of Guinea-Bissau during their struggle against Portuguese colonialism and in the period of building an independent state. The PAIGC representatives assessed highly the USSR's foreign policy initiatives, whose aim is to preserve and strengthen peace and to rid mankind of the threat of thermo-nuclear war.

The CPSU representatives described the vigorous activity of the CPSU and the Soviet state in defense of peace and against imperialism's aggressive policy. They gave information relating to the Soviet people's selfless labor in implementing the decisions of the 26th party congress and subsequent CPSU Central Committee plenums and noted that the successful fulfillment of the quotas of the 11th Five-Year Plan is raising the Socialist economy and the people's welfare to a new level. The Soviet side expressed solidarity with the Guinean people who, under the PAIGC's leadership, are marching along the path of independence and social progress. Those taking part in the meeting resolutely denounced the barbaric US act of aggression against Grenada and stressed that joint efforts by all the world's peace-loving forces are needed to rebuff the policy of imperialism. The talks took place in a warm, friendly atmosphere. (16 Nov 83, p. 4, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report, #223, 17 Nov 83, p. J2)

Madagascar

CPSU Congratulations

(Text) The CPSU Central Committee greets the delegates to the 10th Congress of the Congress Party of Malagasy Independence and cordially congratulates you, and through you all activists of the Congress Party of Malagasy Independence, on the remarkable jubilee--the 25th anniversary of the party's foundation. From the moment of its emergence, the Congress Party of Malagasy Independence has consistently stood against imperialism, colonialism, and neocolonialism and for Madagascar's development along the road of independence and economic and social progress. Your party, together with the country's other patriotic forces, is actively struggling to implement the principles of the Malagasy Socialist revolution's charter and is rebuffing the intrigues by foreign and domestic reaction. Your congress is being held under complicated international conditions, sharply exacerbated through the fault of imperialist circles headed by the United States, which are pushing the world toward thermonuclear catastrophe. Today there is no task that is more important or more crucial than to block the path of imperialism's aggressive aspirations. The Soviet Communists evaluate on its merit the contribution made by the Congress Party of Malagasy Independence to the cause of the struggle for peace and international security and to the development of friendly relations between our countries. (28 Oct 83, p. 1, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report, #212, 1 Nov 83, p. J2)

Newspaper Praises USSR on Position on Weapons in Space

(Excerpt) The introduction in the Soviet Union of a unilateral moratorium on the launching in space of any kind of anti-satellite weapon, and the proposal to negotiate about its abolishment is constructive and opportune, writes a Malagasy newspaper. Despite the peaceful offer by the Soviet Union, continues the article, Western powers led by the United States continue to obstruct this effort. (16 Nov 83, p. 4)

In a Friendly Atmosphere

(Text) On 15 November A. A. Gromyko, member of the CPSU Central Committee Politburo, First Deputy Chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, and USSR Foreign Minister, received J. Bemananjara, Foreign Minister of the Democratic Republic of Madagascar. The Minister delivered a message from President D. Ratsiraka to Yu. V. Andropov. During the talk, which took place in a warm, friendly atmosphere, there was an exchange of opinions on several questions of Soviet-Malagasy relations and a number of international problems of mutual interest. Those taking part in the talks voiced grave concern in connection with the threat created to the cause of peace and the peoples' security by the US course toward cranking up the arms race and achieving military superiority. A. A. Gromyko stressed that the Soviet Union is doing everything possible to avert the looming danger, to defend peace in the world, and to seek an improvement in the international situation. This is convincingly borne out by Yu. V. Andropov's statement and specific Soviet peace initiatives. J. Bemananjara assessed highly the Soviet Union's peace-loving policy and its proposals aimed at preventing a thermonuclear conflict, safeguarding lasting peace, and curbing the arms race in the interest of resolving the urgent socioeconomic problems facing mankind. The sides resolutely denounced the US aggression against Grenada and the policy of imperialist interference in the internal affairs of Central America and the Caribbean. They were unanimous in the opinion that the reason for the new aggravation of the situation in the Near East and primarily in Lebanon is Israel's continuing aggression and constantly expanding US interference in the Arab countries' affairs.

During the talk attention was paid to discussion of the situation in the Indian Ocean. The Soviet Union and Madagascar fully support the nonaligned countries' proposal to turn the region into a zone of peace and advocate the withdrawal of naval forces which do not belong to littoral states and the abolition of foreign military bases. They denounced attempts to prevent the convening of an international conference on the Indian Ocean. During the exchange of opinions on the situation in Africa the sides noted the persisting tension in the south of the continent, where the racist regime of the Republic of South Africa, encouraged by the United States and several of its NATO allies, is waging an undeclared war against Angola, resorting to aggressive actions against Angola, and other neighboring states, and creating every obstacle to a settlement of the Namibian question. Both sides confirmed their unvarying support for the Namibian people's national liberation struggle under the leadership of the South West Africa People's Organization (SWAPO) and stated the need to implement the UN decisions on granting independence to Namibia. A. A. Gromyko and J. Bemananjara expressed satisfaction with the development of friendly relations between the Soviet Union and Madagascar in the mutual interests of both countries and the consolidation of peace and security in Africa and throughout the world. The mutual desire was expressed to further intensify and develop these relations. A. A. Gromyko gave a luncheon in J. Bemananjara's honor during which the Ministers exchanged friendly toasts. On the same day the guest from Madagascar left the Soviet Union. (16 Nov 83, p. 4, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report, #223, 17 Nov 83, pp. J1-2)

In fact the leaders of the racist regime have turned Namibia into a proving ground for the testing of new weapons on peace-loving people. (31 Oct 83, p. 5)

Upper Volta

Report on Upper Volta

Formerly caravan trains ran through here which carried goods between sub-Saharan Africa and the Mahgreb countries. In Upper Volta, the influence is found in the architecture of the old mosques, the bronze figures of the camel drivers, the work of the local artisans, and in the names of publications like the Carrefour Africin, or African Crossroads.

European colonial expansion changed the trade routes. They shifted to the coast and port cities. For the country's inhabitants, as in many other regions of the continent, an agonizing period of stagnation came.

In 1971, the UN included Upper Volta on the list of countries with the lowest income per capita. Chronic drought was undermining agriculture, the base of the economy.

The sudden change in Upper Volta's political life which accompanied the coup which brought Thomas Sankara to power in August 7 this year, was like thunder in clear skies. The revolution, said Sankara, lies in the course of the present liberation processes in Africa, anti-imperialist pressure, and the willingness of people to build socialism. (21 Nov 83, p. 6)
